

1. she faked a suicide attempt
2. she secretly planned on leaving and betraying me as we were dating
3. she obsessed over her ex boyfriend, tac, while we dated and cut his name into her arm
4. i was scared to death due to how much she was harming herself but she'd always ignored me and the others who were concerned for her wellbeing. she even told us she was ignoring us before and kept doing it and sending pics of her cuts
5. she was friends with some creep [who is an adult] even when he was obsessively stalking me, being gross towards me, etc. he also drew nsfw of me multiple times when i was fourteen, a large portion of it was rape porn and he talked abt wanting to rape me in the descriptions of the drawings. none of us pieced together this was all the same person and we thought it was multiple people out to get me, but even after it was found out they were all the same creep, she never addressed anything until i brought it up a lot and even then it still took her months to finally do so. ontop of that even before the rape porn was made and she KNEW he atleast made the drawing of me with my vagina showing she STILL befriended him even after he told her his age.
6. she remained friends with parsley [a person who was in our friend group for prolly like a week or two before abandoning us and betraying us and lying about me. I found out in December 2021 Parsley is also an abuser and it apparently dated and groomed ELEVEN YEAR OLD while being in high school itself. it also doxxed, harassed, and abused people] after it left the friend group and helped it spy on me by letting it on her alt account and had it pretend to be her. I confronted her about this that night and the next day she didn't care and said she only did it because she only cared that people were being mean to her for dating me.
7. she forced tac to date her and admitted to blackmailing and manipulating him.
8. When she got over Tac, she started ghosting him to the point he would constantly message me worrying about her and begging me to tell him if she's okay because he was scared to death she was hurt or something. when i told her about this she didn't care at all. also before anything is said, ill admit tac is a horrible person, but she still wasnt in the right for this and this was before i had any of my experiences with tac in 2022 so i sympathized with him a lot . i dont support kristal nor tac anymore tho
9. she said when she makes friends she plans on how she'd kill them irl
10. she has a thing for crushing on serial killers and school shooters and even said she was going to shoot up her school once which resulted in the school kicking her out back in 2021. im unsure if she still crushes on them now but she still had a thing for jeffrey dahmer in 2022 despite pretending not to publically.
12. she would cut herself over every little thing or atleast threaten to. like one time julian/slitgill posted a gif from a fictional band she likes called your favorite martian, she got mad because "that's her thing" and said she was going to cut herself over it. she later claimed julian was one of the people who "fucked her up really bad".
13. she was friends with DarkLordHenry/Hailey, a known pedophile. idk if she still is but she was aware of what hailey was done but still supported her

14. she was friends with hopeless Lucile who is a groomer. she knew this very well and even shared nawnii's video on her and said "fuck you" or something towards the video. she also wanted lucile to groom her
15. she had a weird thing for pedophiles in general
16. she admitted to wanting to be a disorder faker. she discussed wanting to fake being a system in spongy and also claimed she had a delusional attachment to axel from your favorite martian despite not having psychosis. infact she made fun of delusional attachments before and admitted she knew nothing about them when someone pointed out it was a psychosis thing and she shouldn't do that. she also made jokes about having delusional attachments and referred to it as "pretending to be a character or a person". she once said she likes to pretend to be jeffrey dahmer and tac in response to a discussion about delusional attachments.
17. she uses the r-slur constantly despite not being able to reclaim it
18. i have seen her face tons of times, her skin is really tan (she is puerto rican) but says the n slur. she isnt even black either, shes just rlly tan.
19. she was friends with mortis at one point if i remember correctly and was a proud member of dice before getting banned within the same month of being a member
20. she admitted to having a nazi fetish at one point
21. she still likes serial killers and said luka magnotta is a comfort for her. NOTE that luka killed and abused KITTENS as well as also killing humans. kittens and cats are a HUGE comfort for me and she knows this.
22. she is transphobic towards trans woman [i forgot the actual term for this] and hangs out with others who are as well
23. she hangs around with ppl who make ableist jokes and tells some herself [her only known diagnoses are for bpd and bipolar disorder iirc , however she has been known to be incredibly ableist towards autistic people, she lately made a joke about dyslexic people as well as people with down syndrome]
